Woodward appointed to JSRCC Educational Foundation Board

Richmond, Va. (January 22, 2009) – James Woodward was recently appointed to the J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College Educational Foundation Board.

Currently serving as a corporate officer with Media General, Woodward joined the company in 1983 as a staff accountant in the Financial Administration Department. Since that time, he has served as audit manager in the Internal Audit Department, assistant controller at the Richmond Times-Dispatch, manager of Human Resources Systems and director of Corporate Human Resources. In 2005, he was elected corporate vice president.

Woodward graduated from James Madison University in 1983 with a Bachelor of Business Administration degree in accounting.

Serving over 18,000 students annually, J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College is the youngest and third largest of 23 community colleges in Virginia. The College operates three campuses serving residents in the City of Richmond and the counties of Henrico, Hanover, Goochland, Powhatan and Louisa.
