

Date Prepared: 2-19-2009

New Revised
(Check One)

Effective Date: Spring 09

COURSE OUTLINE

1. COURSE PREFIX and NUMBER: ART 100 CREDIT HOURS: 3
2. COURSE TITLE: Art Appreciation
3. PREREQUISITES: English placement recommendation for ENG 111 and satisfactory completion of ENG 4 if required by reading placement test.
4. COURSE DESCRIPTION: Introduces art from prehistoric times to the present day. Describes architectural styles, sculpture, photography, printmaking, and painting techniques. Prerequisites: English placement recommendation for ENG 111 and satisfactory completion of ENG 4 if required by reading placement test. Lecture 3 hours per week.
5. CONTENT:
 - a. Introduction to Art Media and Process In Both Fine and Applied Arts
 - b. Introduction to Art Vocabulary and Fundamentals of Composition
 - c. Over View of Film, Video, and Other Contemporary Media and Works
 - d. Over View of Major Works and Art Historical Periods from Prehistoric to Contemporary Art
6. GENERAL COURSE OBJECTIVES:

Upon successful completion of the course, the student will be able to:

 - a. Distinguish periods and recognize the various styles from each culture.
 - b. Master the basic vocabulary of art history.
 - c. Identify the techniques and media in a work.
 - d. Formulate and express thoughtful, personal analyses of art works.