

J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College
Course Content Summary

Course Prefix and Number: FST 136

Credits: 1

Course Title: Advanced Study for Fire Instructor I

Course Description (including lecture hours, lab hours, total contacts)

Provides students who have completed NFPA 1041 certification as Fire Instructor I with additional instruction on the development of teaching methods and presentations. FST 136 and NFPA certification as Fire Instructor I will be considered the equivalent of FST 135. Completion of this course will qualify students for NFPA 1403 certification. Lecture 1 hour per week.

Course Prerequisites/Corequisites (Entry-level competencies required for enrollment)

NFPA 1041 Fire Instructor I Certification

Course Objectives (Each item should complete the following sentence.)

Upon completing the course, the student will be able to:

1. Meet the minimum requirements for training fire suppression personnel engaged in fire fighting operations under live fire conditions.
2. Enumerate the terms and definitions included in the live fire standard.
3. Demonstrate use of Acquired Structures for live fire training.
4. Demonstrate use of Gas Fired Training Center Buildings for live fire training.
5. Demonstrate use of Non-Gas Fire Training Center Buildings for live fire training.
6. Demonstrate use of Exterior Props for live fire training.
7. Demonstrate use of Exterior Class B Props for live fire training.
8. Prepare all associated records and reports required for conducting live fire training evolutions.

Major Topics to be Included

Live Fire Training Evolutions including

- a. Administration
- b. Referenced Publications
- c. Definitions
- d. Acquired Structures
- e. Gas Fire Training Center Buildings
- f. Exterior Props
- g. Exterior Class B Props
- h. Reports and Records

Effective Date of Course Content Summary (Month, Date Year): Oct 1, 2008