SCHOLARSHIP

The Greater Richmond Tourism Association (GRTA) remains a strong supporter of education and lifelong learning for hotel, restaurant, and travel & tourism employees in the Greater Richmond Region. The Association recognizes the importance of preparing individuals for entry and advancement in the hospitality and travel industries, and supports scholarship at J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College (JSRCC).

Every Fall and Spring Semester, one $500.00 scholarship will be awarded to one student. The scholarship is designated for payment of tuition and fees for courses leading to a certificate or degree in the Reynolds School of Culinary Arts, Tourism and Hospitality.

To be awarded the GRTA Scholarship, the following requirements must be met:

- Completion of a JSRCC Scholarship Application Form with all necessary enclosures,
- Current enrollment in one of the following award programs at JSRCC:
  - Career Studies Certificate – Hospitality Leadership
  - Career Studies Certificate – Hotel Rooms Division Management
  - Associate of Applied Science Degree - Hospitality Management
    - Lodging Operations Specialization
    - Hospitality Entrepreneurship Specialization
- Achievement of a minimum of 2.5 cumulative grade point average at the time of application,
- Current employment in a Greater Richmond lodging or tourism-connected operation,
- Anticipated enrollment in the same curriculum during the semester following that of the award announcement.
